

SARAH "SALLY" B CUTLER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Family Foreign Service background; marriage

Yaoundé, Cameroon 1957-1959

Tedium and excitement in Yaoundé
Travels with Dr. Gwendolyn Carter in West Africa
Inadequate Foreign Service salary
Housekeeping, food orders from Denmark
Bees and snakes
Domestics Archibald, Michel
Political situation in Cameroon
Marilyn and Allen Holmes arrive as replacements
Bats in the Chad Airport

Washington, DC

Reverse culture shock
Allen born

Algiers, Algeria 1962-1965

Ben Bella overthrown
Travel in Sahara
Admiration for AEP Bill Porter
Mrs. Porter and hats
Birthing of Thomas

Tabriz, Iran 1965-1967

Housing
Old vs. New
Taught Allen with Calvert System
Golden Caviar
Health measures
Travel to Afghanistan through Khyber Pass

Seoul, Korea 1967-1969

Cultural, language difference

Saigon, Vietnam 1969-1971

Walt to Vietnam
Sally, children to UK
Cold house, travel and museums
Effect on marriage
Independent vs. dependent relationship

Disappointment
In defense of Foreign Service children

Washington, DC
Effect of potential Cambodia assignment on family
Sally gets library degree

Kinshasa, Zaire 1975-1979
Librarian job at international school
Reaction of other AEP wives
Takes own little VW to Zaire
Takes students to see hospital conditions in Zaire
Confronts principal on academic standards
Outbreak of Ebola virus
Residence pool, tennis court (helicopter pad), open to all, Peace Corps volunteers, etc.
Ladies lunch and Cutler menagerie
Madame Despina, problem domestic
Visits from Henry Kissinger, Stephen Solarz
Concern over Thomas's delayed arrival in Boston
Walt offered ambassadorship to Iran

Washington, DC 1979-1981
In Washington
Relationship endings
Sally to Boston
Walt's appointment rejected by Khomeini
Boys in limbo
Sally returns to Washington
Two mortgages, works to help restore finances
Divorce

Conclusion
Mama Mobutu's Official burial
Foreign Service wives become "caterers" if paid
For Foreign Service Officers, career can have precedence over family
Divorce, Children
Happy childhood, brief happy second marriage