

AMBASSADOR LEO G. CYR

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

- Holy Cross and Georgetown's Foreign Service School
- National Recovery Administration – 1933-1936
- Rural Resettlement Administration
- Georgetown Law School – 1935-1939

Division of World Trade Intelligence, State Department

- Lend-lease and Surplus Property Division
- Aviation Division
- National War College

Officer in Charge, Southern African Affairs 1949-1950

- Training and African experts
- Traveling to consular posts
- Consular staffs
- African nationalism
- US attitude towards southern Africa
- African Affairs v. Western European Office

Northern African Affairs 1950-1952

- Countries under North African Affairs
- Policy towards North Africa
- Staff in North Africa
- Military Considerations
- Interactions with Department of Defense and CIA
- Foreign Service

Consul General, Tangier, Morocco- 1957-1960

- Duties
- Western community in Morocco
- Staff

Yaounde, Cameroon 1960-1961

- Chargé d'Affairs
- Political Situation

DCM, Tunis, Tunisia 1961-1965

- US-Tunisian relationship
- French influence in Tunisia
- Pressure from Algeria
- Problems in dealing with Ambassador Walmsley

Housing and home leave
Reception with Spanish ambassador
Mrs. Walmsley and moving furniture

Ambassador to Rwanda

1966-1971

Embassy staff
US policy towards Rwanda
President Kayibanda
Belgian presence
Invasion of Bukavu
Red Cross and communications
Embassy objectives in Rwanda
AID in Rwanda
Delivering moon rock
Dian Fossey (gorilla scientist)
Rwanda as a post
Consulting with Secretary of State Dean Rusk Resignation

Conclusion

Greatest accomplishments
Frustrations and family problems