

LEILA F. DANE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Mrs. Dane was married to Consul General Ernest B. Dane II and accompanied him on his assignments with the State Department Foreign Service in Washington, D.C. and abroad.

Background

Born Leila Amante Finlay in New York City
Preparatory education in Switzerland and Germany.
Connecticut College for Women; American University, BA; Catholic University, MA,
Florida Institute of Technology, PhD
Profession: Clinical, political psychology
Married to a French national; living abroad
Paris, France
Dakar, Senegal
American women's Club
Casablanca, Morocco
Divorce
Washington, D.C.
Researcher-translator
Married Consul General Ernest B. Dane III in 1968
Children

Madras, India 1969-1971

Children
Community work
Lay therapist
Madras Mental Nursing Home
Repatriation case
Need for consular training in counseling
Mental health training need

Washington, DC 1972-1981

Mental Health Committee
Micro-counselor in consular training
Psychiatrist in Medical Division
Dr Frank Johnson
Letter to the Washington Post re mental health
Institute for Victims of Terrorism
The Association of American Foreign Service Clinical Social Workers
Drug abuse treatment programs
Life Change Units (LCUs)
Foreign Service Educational Counseling Service
The Foreign Service Institute (FSI) Programs

Embassy evacuations (Hotline)
Pakistan evacuees
Course in negotiation
Stress of diplomats
The Giraffe Project
Coping with lines; (visa, etc.)

Washington, DC

1981-1987

Mental Health Activist
Florida Institute of Technology (student)
Long term stress
Interviewing
Family Liaison Action Group (FLAG)
Institute for Victims of Terrorism
Veterans Administration Hospital
World Federation for Mental Health
American Foreign Service Women's Association
Forum Report
Women's Liberation and the Foreign Service