

HAROLD L. DAVEY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Family Background and Education University of Nebraska
Foreign Service Officer, US Department of State	1952-1963
Toronto, Canada; Consular Officer Request to Specialize in Labor Jim Taylor, US Department of Labor Herb Weiner, former Assistant Labor Attaché in London
Southampton, England; Consular Officer Political/ Labor Contact Program University of Wisconsin, Consular Correspondence Course Master's in Labor Economics
Tunis, Tunisia; Political-Labor Officer,	1959-1961
Tunisian Trade Union Movement AFL-CIO Involvement with Tunisian Labor Irving Brown, plus meetings UGTT convention Cooperative Movement President Bourguiba and the Tunisian Labor Movement Habib Achour Working Relations within the US Embassy in Tunis Battle of Bizerte and Its Impact on Contacts Food for Work Program
US Department of Labor; Near east and South Asia Area Advisor and Foreign Service Coordinator	1962-1971 1981-1994
Rural Affairs Academy in Bangladesh
Conversion to the Civil Service, US Department of Labor	1963
Role of Assistant Secretary of Labor George L. P. Weaver
Labor Component in Overseas Trade Fairs/ Thessaloniki, Greece
Labor Attaché Corps Labor Function at Overseas Embassies

Background of Foreign Service Officers and the Labor Function
Labor Department Program to Recruit from the Outside
Foreign Service Institute and Labor Training
Labor Attachés Who Have Been Recalled
Herb Baker
Selection of Labor Attachés
Role of the AFL-CIO
George Weaver
Irving Salert/ John Doherty

AFL-CIO Labor Assistance Institutes

Human Rights/ Workers' Rights Issues

Cold War and the Labor Attaché Corps

Irvin Brown of the AFL-CIO and US Covert Funds
US Government Labor Assistance Activities
Agency for International Development
US Department of Labor VOTRAKON Program in Saudi Arabia
West Bank and Gaza

US Department of Labor Communications

Foreign Labor Trends Reports
Labor Department's Bulletin Board

Relations with State Department Special Advisor on International Labor