

AMBASSADOR ARTHUR H. DAVIS, JR.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

- Born and raised in Massachusetts
- US Army, World War II
- Pan American – Grace Airways in Chile 1945
- United Airlines, Denver
- Denver shopping center, Denver area
- Republican Party activities
- Supporter of Governor Reagan for President 1972

Paraguay

1982- 1985

- Ambassador
- Military training program
- Human rights violations
- President Strossner
- Political environment
- Opposition newspaper closed
- Montenaro
- “Joseph Megele” Nazi war criminal
- Narcotics problem
- Attitude towards Americans
- Embassy staff
- Milgroup
- USIA
- Death of Mrs. Davis

United Nations

1985- 1986

- Latin American advisor to U.S. delegation

Panama

1986- 1990

- Noriega
- Spadafora murder
- Pres. Nicola Barletta
- Panama Defense Force and drug trafficking
- Noriega campaign to Amb. Davis
- Elliot Abrams
- Panama Review Committee
- Dealing with Noriega
- Local political alignments
- Panama’s attitude towards AID
- President Delvalle
- Noriega and CIA

Embassy staff
Panama Canal Authorities
Panamanians' attitude towards the canal
Diaz Herrera
Elections of 1989
Gabriel Lewis
Anti-US demonstrations
Cutoff of US aid
US indictment of Noriega
Noriega removed from office
President Delvalle indictment
US does not recognize Government of Panama
US operations during this period
Noriega's attitude
"Persona non grata" in Panama
La Prensa
Daughter Lucy v. PDF
DCM John Masetoe a target
Embassy contacts with Noriega after indictments
Reduced embassy staff
Noriega's profits President Reagan and Noriega
Noriega's US contacts
President-elect Bush Noriega
Panama's elections of 1989
Endara nominated President – US help
Senator Dodd's help
Trying to persuade Noriega
President Carter's help as observer
President Carter's naiveté
Carter betrayed by Noriega's forces
US military view on elections
Past Torrijo promises re democracy in Panama
Noriega defeated at polls
Winning candidates attacked and beaten
Cooperation of CIA and military staff
OAS campaign to remove Noriega
Davis recalled to Washington
Panama Review Committee
Meeting with Secretary Baker
Return to Panama
U.S. invades Panama
Confusion in Panama
"Non-protection" of US staff and others
Looting in Panama
Monsignor LaBoha – friend or foe?
Agrément problems

Ambassador Dean Hinton replaces Davis