

AMBASSADOR SHELBY CULLOM DAVIS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Education
Princeton, Columbia and Geneva (Switzerland) Universities
Career prior to being named Ambassador to Switzerland
Geneva, Switzerland; Princeton University	1930 representative to Little United Nations
Marriage
Journalist, New York World
Columbia Broadcasting System; World Disarmament Conference
Economic Advisor, Thomas Dewey campaign	1944
for Presidency
Residence in Switzerland	1933-1934
Swiss banking secrecy law	1933
United States Ambassador to Switzerland	1969-1975
Judicial Assistance Treaty - 1974
Relations
Circumstances re appointment
Money laundering
Swiss views of banking secrecy
Swiss World War II experience
Relations with US Ambassador to UN in Geneva
Relations with Russians
Vietnam
General Comments
Views on Foreign Service as a career
Career vs. non-career officers
World travels
Activities of Mrs. Davis
Relevance of relations with China and Russia	