

DR. DOROTHY DILLON

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Biosketch

Encountering Discrimination against Women in Higher Positions

1960: Entrance into Foreign Service

1963: First Overseas Assignment: Guatemala

Senator Fulbright Opposed Putting Cultural and Educational Programs in USIA

1954-1963: Polarization of Guatemalan Public: Pro-Castillo Armas or Otherwise

Guatemala Reaction to Kennedy Assassination

Unusually Heavy Educational Exchange Program in Guatemala

Establishing Useful Contact with Previously Unapproached Economics Faculty at Guatemala's National University

Dillon also Mends US Fences with University Law Faculty

1966: Cultural Attaché in Manila

A Year as a Brookings Institute Fellow

Then Gradual Ascension to Assistant Director, Latin America

Comments on Value and Nature of Country Plans

Explaining Watergate Abroad

VOA's Performance during Watergate

VOA's Relevancy in Latin America

Radio Marti

Audience Data System at Posts Valuable?

Diplomat in Residence at American University

Member of Foreign Service Grievance Board

Current Status of Women Officers in USIA

Advisability of Sending Groups of Social Science Teachers to US – Especially from Secondary Schools