

AMBASSADOR THOMAS J. DODD

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born in Washington, DC; raised in Connecticut
Georgetown University; University of Santandare (Spain), University of Iberoamericana
(Mexico City), George Washington University (Ph.D.)
U.S. Army (Counterintelligence Corps)
Latin America interests
Fulbright scholarship

Georgetown University - Professor 19??-1981

Latin America studies
Foreign Service connections
Foreign students
Politics

State Department - FSI - Professor 1981

Central American history
Foreign diplomatic corps

State Department - Policy Coordination 1981-19??

Latin America
Central America seminar
Lecturer
Madeleine Albright

Georgetown University 19??-1993

Chief, Program for Graduate Latin American studies

State Department - Ambassadorial Seminar 1993

Uruguay - Ambassador 1993-1997

MERCOSUR (Southern Market Organization)
NAFTA
Government
Peru
Sanguinetti
Cuba
Costa Rica
U.S. relations
European connections
Universities
Agriculture

External relations
Narcotics
Miami Summit - 1994
Puerto Rico
Press

Costa Rica - Ambassador

1997-2001

Environment
Relations
Personalities
Education
Culture
Narcotics
Refugees
Media
Trade
Cuba
Catholic Church
UN issues
Diplomats
Universities
Environmental issues
External relations