

GILBERT J. DONAHUE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born and raised in Arlington, Virginia and Maryland
American University
Nepal - Peace Corps	1968-1970
Agriculture extension program
Environment
Royalty
Government
Customs
Evaluation
Entered Foreign Service	1971
A100 course
Mazatlan, Mexico - Vice Consul	1971-1973
Narcotics
Security
Protection cases
Environment
Marriage
Guadalajara, Mexico - Vice Consul	1973-1974
Tandem couple
Foreign Service Institute [FSI] - French Language Training	1974
Abidjan, Ivory Coast - Economic Officer	1974-1976
Ghana
Economy
African economies
French influence
Petroleum
Government
President Houphouet Boigny
Foreign interests
Lebanese
Environment
FSI - Chinese Language Training	1976-1977

Taichung, Taiwan - Chinese Language Training Environment China relations Chinese groups	1977-1978
Hong Kong - China Reporting Group China recognition issue Post-Mao atmosphere China and capitalism U.S. Liaison Office, Beijing Chinese employees Williamsburg Group Relationship with allies U.S.-China Business Council China trade issues Canton Trade Fair Listening post value	1978-1981
State Department - Bureau of Economic Affairs Industrial and strategic minerals OPEC Commodity agreements Production and marketing decisions Government versus market roles	1981-1985
State Department - Secretary's Open Forum - Vice Chairman Dissent channel Operations Dissent cases	1985-1986
Beijing, China - Economic Officer Ambassador Winston Lord GATT U.S. commercial interests Intellectual ferment Deep Purple Park Atmosphere Travel Security Visas	1986-1987
State Department - European Bureau - Canada Desk Officer NAFTA GATT - Uruguay Round U.S.-Canada agreement	1987-1989

Hong Kong - Economic/Political Officer (China)	1989-1992
Britain-China negotiations
Tiananmen massacre
Gorbachev's China visit
Post Cultural Revolution
Democracy movement
U.S.-China relations
Hong Kong and China relationship
British-U.S. differences
Emigration
Expatriates and refugees
Corruption
Minorities
Communists
China visits
Language
Office of the U.S. Trade Representative	1992-1994
Director for Intellectual Property
GATT
NAFTA
U.S. trade law
FSI - Portuguese Language Training	1992-1994
Sao Paulo, Brazil - Deputy Principal Officer	1994-1997
Economy
U.S. interests
Spanish Mercosur
Finance
U.S. relations
State Department - International Organizations -	1997-1998
Deputy Office Director
IFAD
UN food agencies
UNDP	