

AMBASSADOR EILEEN R. DONOVAN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Early Years in Boston
Girls Latin School
Boston Teachers College
High School Teacher
U. S Army [WACS]	1943
Officer Candidate School
Japanese Language School, Univ. of Michigan
Tokyo – SCAP Headquarters	1945
Education Officer
U.S. Foreign Service	1948
Oral Exam in Washington
First Assignment – Tokyo
SCAP POLAD [Political Advisor’s Office]
Department of State
Public Affairs Section
Japan-Korea Desk Officer
Manila	1952
Political Section Chief
Trip to Jolo
Milan 1954
Principal Officer, acting
Milan Trade Fair
Harvard 1956 MPBA Degree
Department of State
Bureau of Intelligence and Research (Europe)
National Intelligence Estimates
Senior Seminar
Barbados, Principal officer	1960
Breakup of the West Indies Federation
U.S. government Inattention to Islands
Department of State

Assistant Director of Caribbean Affairs

Barbados, Appointment as Ambassador 1968
[Also Special Representative to Antigua, Dominica, Grenada, St. Christopher-Nevis-Anguilla,
St. Lucia, St. Vincent.]
Senate Hearings
Presentation of Credentials

Grenada
Strong Man Geary
Bishop and New Jewel Movement
Cubans and Russians
Economic activities

Other Islands
Economic Activities

Injured from Fall

Comment
Need for Washington Support of Ambassadors
Selection of Political Ambassadors
Entertaining at Post
No Bias Against Women

Post Staffing
Peace Corps
Consular Staff

Retirement

Appendix
Women Chiefs of U.S. Diplomatic missions - the First Fifty Years, 1933-1983
Bibliography of Women Ambassadors Project
About the Interviewer