

PAUL DU VIVIER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Family origin
Princeton
Entrance into Foreign Service
St. Johns, Newfoundland	1941-1946
Atlantic Charter
Churchill-Roosevelt negotiations
Marseilles	1942
Situation
Organization of Consulate General
The Maquis
The OSS
General de Gaulle
Life in unoccupied France
View of French fascists
Internment	1942-1944
Internment process
Organization
Movement to Black Forest
Life at Baden Baden
Life in Nazi Germany during the war
Release
Readjustment to State
Work in Washington
V.
Origin of assignment
Economic reporting
Agriculture problems
Malaria Situation at the Consulate
Racial tensions
Ottawa	1946-1950
Assistant Commercial Attaché
Reporting on Canadian minerals
Stockholm	1950-1954
Commercial Attaché

Exporting commercial products
Life in Sweden
Swedish Society
US-Swedish trade relationship
Berlin	1954-1955
Transfer to Berlin
Economic Council of Europe
Eleanor Dulles
German commercial activities
Situation in Berlin
Reporting on East Germany
Paris	1958-1961
Deputy Commercial Attaché
Changes in France
Promoting French exports
Commerce Trade Fair
Shift in commercial emphasis
French nationalism
Ambassador Houghton
Ambassador Gavin
Gaullist faction at embassy
De Gualle's impact on commercial relations
French view of Kennedy
Bordeaux	1961-1962
Commercial relations
Senator McCarin
Wine trade
Problems with Principle Officer
Nice/Monaco	1962-1965
Principle Officer
Situation in Nice
Monaco
Grace Kelley
US interests in Monaco
American Association of the Cote d'Azur
US Navy problems
De Gaulle
Edinburgh	1965-1968
Consul General
US interests in Scotland
US companies

Organization of post
Life in Edinburgh
Military bases

Frankfurt

1968-1972

Deputy Principle Officer
Nature of post
Contact with Germans
Helmut Kohl
Function of consulates

Conclusion

Greatest satisfaction
Highlights of career
Life in the Foreign Service