

AMBASSADOR EDWARD RICHARD DUDLEY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

- Counsel to the Governor of the Virgin Islands
- Election of President Truman
- Family

US Envoy Extraordinary, Minister Plenipotentiary to Liberia 1948-1949

- Point IV Program
- President C.D.B King
- US Mission raised to Embassy

Ambassador to Liberia 1949-1953

- Dean of the Diplomatic Corps
- Historic relationship with US
- Assistant Secretary George McGee
- Travels in Southern Africa
- Regional conferences
- President William V.S. Tubman
- Government
- US military mission
- Trade
- Working environment
- Black American diplomatic assignments
- Relations
- Independent African nations
- American religions groups
- Firestone Rubber
- US commercial interests
- Changes in US policy

Background (Continued)

- Family background
- Early years
- Education
- Teaching
- New York City experience
- Career in theatre
- St. Johns University Law School
- NAACP
- Discrimination cases
- Assistant to the Governor of the Virgin Islands
- President, Manhattan Borough

U.S. Ambassador to Liberia (continued) Eisenhower Administration	1949-1953
Return to Private Law Practice NAACP's Life Membership operation Domestic Relations Judge Borough President of Manhattan Elected to New York Supreme Court Advice to Foreign Service Office Candidates Amistad records storage Phelps-Stokes Foundation Colored Ambassadors	1953-2005