

AMBASSADOR ANGIER B. DUKE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Childhood
Education
Interest in Foreign Service
Brief overview of career
Argentina/ Spain	1949-1952
First experiences as FSO
Ambassador to El Salvador	1953-1953
Political and economic conditions
President Osorio
Opposition
US policy under Dulles
Osorio meets Arbenz, President of Guatemala
Chief of Protocol	1961-1965
Duties
Chemistry between leaders
John Diefenbacker
Shah
Impressions of experience
Dean Rusk and George Ball
General de Gaulle at JFK's funeral
Ambassador to Spain	1965-1968
Succession to Franco
US military presence
Franco's personality
Spanish view of US
Juan Carlos
Ambassador to Denmark	1968-1969
Effort to enlarge Danish role in NATO
Mood toward Americans
Ambassador to Morocco	1979-1981
Appointment
Ambassador Richard Parker
Arms sales and war against Polisarios

Conclusion

Involvement in organizations after retirement
Continued support for Foreign Service