

ROBERT B. DUNCAN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born and raised in New Jersey
Princeton University
U.S. Army
Private business
Entered Foreign Service - 1960

State Department - Intelligence and Research Bureau - Africa 1960-1962
Bob Baum in Nouakchott, Mauritania
Sudan

Tangier, Morocco - Arabic language training 1962-1964
Instruction program
“Maghrebi” Arabic
Environment

Rabat, Morocco - Economic/Financial Officer 1964-1965
U.S. military interests
King Hassan
Ambassador John H. Ferguson
“Recuperation” and Hickenlooper amendment
Ambassador Henry Tasca

Algiers, Algeria - Economic/Commercial Officer 1965-1967
Algeria-Morocco relations
Political relations
U.S. interests
Patent and trademark problems
Trade relations
French influence
Local culture
Arab-Israeli War - 1967
Soviet influence
Security
Ambassador Jurgen
Evacuation
Fundamentalism

State Department - Foreign Service Institute - Economic Studies 1967
“Reinstein University”
Course instruction

Ex-Im Bank Warbasa Dam (Mozambique)
State Department - International Finance and Economic Officer Ex-Im Bank Warbasa Dam (Mozambique) Development Loan Committee Treasury-State relations	1967-1971
Harvard University - Economic Studies Affirmative action program	1971-1972
Addis Ababa, Ethiopia - Economic Counselor United Nations Economic Commission for Africa Ambassador E. Ross Adair Poverty Emperor Haile Selassie Geography AID program Revolution Ethnic groups U.S. relations	1972-1974
State Department - Africa Bureau - Director, Economic Policy Staff Bill Schaufele PL-480 operations Congressional relations Sahelian drought Zaire Belgian presence in Zaire Portuguese ex-colonies	1974-1977
National War College Discussion issues	1977-1978
Paris, France - Economic Counselor Ambassador Arthur Hartman Ambassador John Kenneth Galbraith Algeria French interests French "thinking" French pragmatism European Community Security Attacks against embassy and personnel	1978-1982

State Department - Personnel Counseling Counseling economic officers Assigning economic officers Management problem solving “Conal” recruitment Excess of political officers Equalizing “cones” Recruitment of women in Foreign Service Tandem assignments	1982-1985
State Department - East Asia Bureau - Economic Policy Booming economic growth Secretary of State Shultz ASEAN economies Philippines Taiwan China problems	1985-1987
Bangkok, Thailand - Economic Counselor Political situation Military role U.S. interests Economy Cigarettes issue Intellectual property protection Pharmaceutical manufacturing Thai officials AT&T production Thai currency Corruption Royal family Rice	1987-1990
U.S. Representative on United Nations Economic Mission for East Asia Relations with Chinese Lithuania	1990
State Department - B/EX - Recruitment Affirmative action program Examination process Female recruitment Adjustments to exams	1990-1991
State Department - DINR - Director, Office of Economic Analysis	1991-1993

Duties
Soviet Union problems