

AMBASSADOR RALPH EARLE II

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background and summary
Philadelphia lawyer
Harvard College
US Army in Korean War
Government service – Pentagon ISA
Advisor to US mission, NATO
Returned to private law
Government service – ACDA representative on SALT II delegation (1973- 1980)
Director US Arms Control and Disarmament Agency	1980
Lawyers' alliance for World Security
Department of Defense – ISA	1968-1969
Special to Paul Warnke
Description of ISA
Paul Warnke
ISA relations with Department of State
Views on Vietnam War
Arms and military assistance policies
Change from Johnson to Nixon administrations
Brussels – NATO	1969-1972
NATO staffing
NATO Air Defense Ground Environment System (NADES)
Working with NATO members
Nuclear planning group
Larry Eagleburger
Personalities
Views on Soviet threat
Attitude towards Germans
Contrast between Danes and Norwegians
Minor crises in NATO
Attitudes re Vietnam War
Arms Control (ACDA)	1972-1981
Director (1980-1981)
Paul Nitze
Personalities
SALT II (consultant)
Negotiating with the Soviet Union
ACDA (Geneva)

Staffing
Drafting the SALT II treaty
Kissinger involvement
“Back channeling”
Soviet delegation
No alcohol rule at negotiations
Soviet negotiators
Ford-Brezhnev breakthrough
Dealing with numbers
Problems in coordinating US delegation Dealing with General Ed Rowny
Ford-Carter transition
Nitze-Warnke controversy
Paul Warnke as head of ACDA
“Comprehensive Proposal” (1977)
Signing the SALT II treaty
“Soviet brigade in Cuba” Soviet invasion of Pakistan (1979)
Senate ratification problems