

SAMUEL D. EATON

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Military service
Education
Entry in Foreign Service – 1947
La Paz, Bolivia	1947-1949
Miners' strike
Americans held hostage
Permission to marry a foreign national
Rio de Janeiro, Brazil	1950-1951
Consular affairs
Economic reporting
Economic training, 1952-1953
Fletcher School
Bangkok, Thailand	1954-1955
McCarthy influence
Economic reporting
Economic Commission for Asia and Far East
Department of State	1955-1959
Office of International France
Bogotá, Colombia	1959-1965
Head of Economic section
Deputy Director of AID program
Alliance of Progress
Problems with Colombia's fiscal policies
Comments on quality of AID personnel
Department of State	1965-1968
Deputy Director, Office of Colombian-Venezuelan affairs
Special Asst.-to-Asst. Secy, ARA
National War College, 1967
Lima, Peru	1968-1970
AID director
Coup ousts Balaunde
Hickenlooper Amendment problems

Quito, Ecuador <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Deputy Chief of Mission Views Rockefeller report as worthless Ambassador Edson Sessions 	1969-1970
Department of State <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Policy review for Latin America Colorado River problems and policy options Herbert Brownell Committee of Fourteen 	1970-1974
Madrid, Spain <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Torrejon base negotiations Ambassador's relations wit Franco Ambassador's relations with Washington Contacts with the opposition alarms State Department Authors "The Forces of Freedom in Spain, 1974-1979" 	1975-1979
Department of State <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Deputy Assistant Secretary for Latin American Affairs US Ambassador Asuncion and others taken hostage Coups in Bolivia Drugs and corruption in Bolivia Disagreement with Secretary of State Haig and Jeane Kirkpatrick Resignation 	1979-