

HORACE Y. EDWARDS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Education

Military Service in Germany

1948: From Military Government to Department of State's Education and Cultural Relations Division at HICOG

The Massive Educational Exchange Program: Germans to US

Nature and Value of Amerika Hauser Program in Germany

The Visiting American Leaders Program

A Startling Anecdote: One Unfortunate "Leader" Performance

1954: The Atoms for Peace Exhibit

1955: Assignment to Mexico

The Attitude of Mexicans Toward Americans: 1950s and Today

The Class Separations in Mexico

The Change in the Power of Mexico's National Revolutionary Party (PRI)

The Mexican Political Left Wing is Influential but Should Never be Considered Communist

Mexico in the 1950s Was a Delightful Post. Today, Air Pollution Has Degraded Mexico City

1960: A Washington Tour. Then to Uruguay as PAO

Uruguay's High Educational and Developmental Level Permitted USIS Efforts to Be Productive

USIS Originated Uruguay's Equivalent of the Former American Huntley/Brinkley Show – A Great Success

The Meeting of Western Hemisphere Presidents at Punta del Este – Lyndon Johnson's Green Grass

Late 1967 – Barcelona, Spain

In Franco Spain USIS Programs Were Limited Except in the Binational Center, Where Spanish Government Did Not Interfere

1969: New Ambassador Transfers Edwards from Barcelona to Madrid as Country CAO

Edwards Gains Help of Ambassador Hill in Preventing a Spanish Government Rigged Trial of Students that Would Have Had Worldwide Repercussions

1971: Back to Washington Until 1974 Retirement