

CLARKE N. ELLIS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born in Boston, Massachusetts; raised in Massachusetts, California, and Washington, DC
University of Redlands; Salzburg, Austria; Johns Hopkins [SAIS] - Bologna
Entered Foreign Service - 1962

Munich, Germany - Rotation Officer 1962-1964

Naples, Italy - Consular Officer 1964-1967
Consul General Homer Byington
Economy
NATO

State Department - Bureau of Public Affairs - News Officer 1967-1969
Robert McCloskey
Secretary of State news summary
Prague invasion
Six Day War

State Department - Foreign Service Institute - Economic Studies 1969

Asmara, Eritrea - Economic Officer 1969-1971
Kagnew station
Rebel conflict
Ethiopia policy
AID

University of Michigan - Economic Training 1971-1972
Study course

State Department - Investment Affairs 1972-1975
OPIC
OECD
Soviet Lend-Lease Amendment
WWI debts
Expropriations
Laurel-Langley Agreement
International Energy Agency negotiations
Foreign Corrupt Practices Act
Hickenlooper Amendment
Multinationals

Vienna, Austria - Economic/Commercial Officer Macroeconomics Customs cooperation agent	1975-1977
Zurich, Switzerland - Consul General Commercial promotion	1977-1980
National War College	1980-1981
Taipei, Taiwan American Institute in Taiwan Operations Programs James Lilley U.S. interests China relations	1981-1984
State Department - Investment Affairs Office - Director OPIC Negotiations Challenger disaster Code of Conduct negotiations Bilateral Investment Treaties China negotiations	1984-1987
State Department - Bureau of East Asian Affairs - Economic Policy - Director Asian economic growth Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation [APEC] Japan Philippines Taiwan China	1987-1989
Rosslyn, Virginia - American Institute for Taiwan Deputy managing director Economic and scientific relations Negotiations GATT U.S.-Taiwan relations Taiwan-China relations Taipei language school Taiwan students to U.S. Taiwan lobby Military sales	1989-1993

State Department - Economic Bureau 1993-1994
Negotiator for Energy Charter Treaty
Soviet buildings burned
Issues
Jackson-Vanik Act

Naples, Italy - Consul General 1994-1997
Embassy relations
U.S. interests
Politics
Issues
U.S. military