

JEWELL FENZI

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Mrs. Fenzi accompanied her Foreign Service Officer husband, Guido Cammillo Fenzi, on his assignments in Washington, D.C. and abroad

Background

- Born in Iowa
- Raised partially in Hawaii
- Universities of California (Berkeley), Arizona and Hawaii
- Married Guido Cammillo Fenzi in 1950
- Advertising Agency in San Francisco
- Husband's early career
- Student life at Berkeley
- Husband joins Foreign Service in 1956
- Children's schooling

1972 Directive

- Contents of directive
- Effect on old "support system"
- Practical applications
- Changes in wives' responsibilities
- Freedom for working wives
- Loss of recognition as part of Embassy
- Family Liaison Office
- Spouse employment at post
- Foreign Service Association proposal
- Mexico City Conferences
- Training for Community Liaison Officers
- Proposals for spouse compensation

Spouse Oral History Project

- Impetus for project
- Origins
- Early interviewees
- Early interviewers
- Oral History of Mid-Atlantic Region, Conference at Woodbridge
- Association for Diplomatic Studies (ADS)
- Financial support
- Marpat Grant (Mrs. Marvin Patterson)
- Organization process
- Honorary board members
- Lauinger Library (Georgetown U.)
- Expanding interviews

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 1985 Report on the Role of the Spouse Association of American Foreign Service Women (AAFSW) Costing of interviews Process Suggests for State re employment and compensation Benefits of life as a Foreign Service spouse
Washington, DC	1956-1958
Rotterdam, Netherlands	1958-1960
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Environment President, American Netherlands (Women's) Club of Rotterdam American International School of Rotterdam Dutch government's help in establishing school Female "dress code" Recreation Daily life European travel Publications
Washington, DC	1960-1962
Freetown, Sierra Leone	1962-1965
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Entertaining Lebanese Servants Children's schooling British schooling Trip to Timbuktu
Rabat, Morocco	1965-1969
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Favorite post American School in Tangier Living environment Medical problem Embassy personnel
Curacao, Netherlands Antilles	1969-1973
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Servants Living accommodations Children's schooling Advertising agency work Wives' responsibilities Reactions to 1972 Directive (re spouses)
Washington, DC	1976-1979

Recife, Brazil	1979-1982
Consulate staff
Entertaining
Environment
Servants
Voodoo priestesses
Accidents
Cookbooks
Portuguese language study
Social kissing
Buying pots
Authoring booklets
Washington, DC	1983
Port of Spain, Trinidad	1983-1985
Community Liaison Officer (CLO)
Cost of living
Food shipments
Environment
Recreation
Carnival
Liaison with schools
Post domestic problems
Developing CLO handbook
Washington, DC	1985
Community service	