

JOHN T. FISHBURN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Office of the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs	1941-1942
Argentine's needs for US industrial products
US Embassy, Buenos Aires, Argentina: Labor Officer	1942-1944
Lack of social, political and labor reporting
Volunteer as first Labor Officer
Coup d'Etat
Juan Domingo Peron
Unfriendly atmosphere
Communists
Francisco Perez Leiros
Alfred Palacios
Union of Municipal Workers
US Embassy, Montevideo, Uruguay: Labor Attaché	1944-1945
Political environment
Department of State: Inter-American labor assignments	1945-1957
Recruitment of Labor Attachés
McCarthy accusations
AFS-CIO influence
Serafino Romualdi
Pro-communist labor leaders
American Institute for Free Labor Development (AIFLD)
US Embassy, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil: Labor Attaché	1957-1963
Communists and Socialists in labor organizations
Environment
Comments on productiveness
Geneva, Switzerland: Labor Attaché	1968-1970(?)
Liaison with the International Labor Organization (ILO)
Russian subversions
Founding of ILO
International problems	