

ALAN FISHER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Biosketch: Alan Fisher

Fisher Goes to South America as Photographer for Rockefeller's IIA Program

Fisher's Role in US War Effort

Pictures for Publication in US to Acquaint US with Latin America –
And Have US Stories Played Back to Latin America

1944: Fisher becomes US Government Employee Covering Italy

1945: End of War; Back to Brazil

Mrs. Fisher Expecting Baby: No Baby Clothes Available. Vernon "Dick" Walters, Then a Major, becomes Baby Clothes Buyer

1947: Into the Foreign Service

Difficulty of Operation Overseas Information Program Under Department of State
Mobil Unit Field Program in Brazil

The French Delahaye Mobile Unit: Its Trials and Tribulations

USIS Films on Brazilian TV

Two Mopix Officers from Washington Visit Rio

The Birth of USIS Inspired Brazilian News Reels

Dive in Visiting US Submarine
Health Program in the Amazon

Arrangements for Ongoing Newsreel Production

Partly USIS Funded

1955: Transfer to Paris

Problems in Mopix Operation in Paris

1957: "Mr. Fisher Goes to Saigon"

Objectives of Mopix in Vietnam

Heart Attack: 1960 – Recuperating at Clark Field, then Back to Washington

Chet Opal, Then PAO Saigon, Coaches his Staff for Foreign Service Exam

Other Post-tour Reminiscences Re Vietnam and Related Experiences

1960: Chief of Foreign Production, Motion Picture Service USIA; Arguments with IMS Head, George Stephens

1966: Back to First Love: Sao Paulo, Brazil

Battle with Sao Paulo Bi-National Center

USIS Organizes New Bi-National Center – Withdraws Support from Old One

Fisher Establishes an Art Gallery for Brazilian Primitive Painters – Great Success

Consul General Changes: Policy and Program Differences with New Consul General

The Gallery Closes after Fisher Leaves

Effectiveness of Leader Grants – A Special Case in Point

Fisher Continues to Help Brazilian Primitive Artists after His Retirement in Sarasota

Reminiscences of and Anecdotes about Experiences Overlooked in Context of Career Discussions

The Composer

The TV Programs

Milking Cows on TV

Widespread Terrorism: Threat to Fisher's Life

Fisher becomes Cachasa Expert: Judges Cachasa Tasting Contest

Editor's Note