

ROBERT F. FRANKLIN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Biosketch and Road to VOA Employment via Army
Employment with VOA – Tangier Relay Station	1951
Moroccans riot over French failure to give Morocco independence	1952
Franklin acquired French during war years
From Tangier relay station to Radio Officer, Saigon The French lose Dien Bien Phu	1954
Cede North Vietnam to Hanoi Back in Saigon: Another (The Binh Xuen)
Rebellion USIS Operations in Saigon in Mid-1950s
After Divisions of Vietnam
To Berlin – RIAS	1956
Almost Immediately Comes the Hungarian Revolt
An Aside: Franklin Acquires Fluency in Several Languages
Washington – Office of Private Cooperation	1959
Manila – Without household furnishings	1962
TDY Interlude back in Saigon
The Belgian Congo; Branch Post at Coquilhatville
Another Rebellion for Franklin – This time the Katanga Province attempt to secede
The Simba Marauders
Evacuation from Coquilhatville via C-130
Home Leave; Then return to the Congo – Bekavu on Lake Kivu	1967

Everything was happy in Bukavu

The Mercenaries rebel on the morning after July 4th celebration

Evacuation again across the river Ruzizi to Rwanda

Back to Bukavu – ousted again by Mercenaries – over to Rwanda

The saga of trying to set up makeshift radio communications in Rwanda

Refugees in Nairobi

Tunis for two-years then retirement

1968