

PHILOINE FRIED

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Mrs. Fried accompanied her husband, Milton Fried, a Foreign Service Officer in the State Department's Foreign Service, on his assignments in the United States and abroad.

Background

- Born in New York City
- New York University
- Daughter of Sidney Hillman, Labor Hall of Fame
- Husband's wartime voyage to Paris

Paris, France

1945-1946

- Voyage to France
- German POWs
- Living conditions
- Post-war environment
- World Federation of Trade Unions
- Communist trade unions

Prague, Czechoslovakia

1946-1950

- Rehabilitating trade unions
- Husband's labor reporting duties
- Communist and socialist trade unions
- Slovakia
- Underground communists
- Ambassador and Mrs. Laurence Steinhardt
- Political Parties
- The putsch and aftermath
- Housing problems
- Security
- Husband on PNG list
- Volunteer, the Joint Distribution Committee

Tel Aviv, Israel

1950-1954

- Histadrut
- Family Israeli connections
- Arab relations
- Jerusalem
- Personal relations with Arabs
- Husband's contacts
- Housing
- Political and religious parties

Husband' resignation
McCarthy era
CARE

Husband's post-State Department career
American Clothing Workers of America