

ROBERT L. FUNSETH

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born in Minnesota, raised in New York
Hobart College; School of International Studies (SAIS), Cornell U/
US Navy
Newspaper editor and correspondent

Mutual Security Agency 1952-1953

Teheran/Tabriz, Iran: USIA; Information & Cultural Officer 1954-1956

Ambassador Loy Henderson
Embassy Personnel
The Shah
Azerbaijan
Point Four Programs
Environment
Ethnic groups
Russian troops
Teaching American Studies
The Mullahs
Shiite customs
Public views of Soviets
Status of women
US support of Shah's policies

Entered the State Department Foreign Service 1956

Beirut, Lebanon; Political Officer 1957-1959

Eisenhower Doctrine
Foreign Minister Charles Malik
Egypt's President Nasser
Reporting
General Chehab
Religious groups
Universities
President Chamoun seeks reelection
Soviet Union
Election controversy
King of Iraq assassination
Chamoun invokes Eisenhower Doctrine
Sixth Fleet landing
Partial evacuation of dependents

Person activity during landing
General Wade
Political maneuvering
Colonel and Mary William Eddy
Political and religious conflict
Robert Murphy visit
Arranging Murphy meeting with the opposition
US policy
Ambassador Robert McClintock
Karami's Washington visit
Award
General Paul Adams
United Nation Nations Observers
Comments on the Landing Operation
Israel
Composition of Landing Force
Lebanese political leaders

State Department; United Nations Affairs

1959-1961

Henry Cabot Lodge
Hammarskjöld
Laos
Congo
Adlai Stevenson
UN operations
Soviets in Africa

Bordeaux, France: Consular Officer

1961-1964

Environment
President Kennedy popularity
Underground in WWII
Collaborators in WWII
Charles de Gaulle
Adenauer visit
Relations
Communist Party
Ambassadors' Wine Tasting
University of Bordeaux
Politics

State Department; Portugal Desk Office

1964-