

ROBERT W. GARRITY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction by Interviewer Hans N. Tuch

Comments on and comparisons of Japanese and American cultures

The excellence and values of American officers in USIS centers

Contrasts between Program emphasis in American Centers in Japan and Germany

Japanese Media use of Wireless File material

The immense value of Exchange Programs in Japan – especially the Fulbright Exchanges

VOA Broadcasting to Japan would have been useless

However, Television, of certain type of programs, has value

The USIS/Japan Magazine, “Trends”, was a great success

Rigid conformance to and time spent on DRS (Distribution Record System) vastly outweighed any Return in Program Effectiveness

Nature, purpose, work and value of USIA Foreign Press Centers

Potential for Stateside Press Centers cooperating with PAOs abroad is great, but inadequately utilized

Value of Press Tours organized by Press Centers for Foreign Correspondents

Closed circuit telecasts of State Department’s Daily Briefings much appreciated by foreign correspondents

Foreign Press Centers as Reference Centers for foreign correspondents

Budget cutting damage to Press Center operations