

HENRY GOSHO

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Bio Sketch

Military Service with Merrill's Marauders in Burma

1946: Post-War: Enters State Department;

1960: Transfer to VOA

Process of Getting into USIA

Gosho Regularly Assigned to USIS Tokyo, 1954

USIS Able to Saturate Japanese Radio with Its Locally Produced Programs in mid-1950s

Later – Near 1960: Commercial Sponsorship Begins – USIS IS Pushed Out of Prime-Time

USIS Arranges to Broadcast World Series to Japan

USIS Trained Many Young Japanese Who Later Became Announcers in Japanese Radio Stations or Networks

Radio/ TV Phase Down: Gosho Becomes Chief of Information Diversion, USIS Tokyo

Planning for President Eisenhower's 1960 Visit to Japan

All the Planning Wasted: Riots Force Cancellation of Visit – June 1960

Value, or Lack Thereof, of American Diplomats Using Japanese Language in Official Meetings or Social Contacts

Breaking Up USIA Would Be a Serious Mistake

What Happened to the Two Gosho Brothers Who Went to Japan with Hank for an Education in the 1930s