

LISPENARD CROCKER GREEN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Mrs. Green accompanied her husband, Ambassador Marshall Green, on his various State Department assignments in Washington, D.C. and abroad.

Background

- Born in New York City
- Married Marshall Green in 1942
- Daughter of Foreign Service parents
- Life at St .Timothy School
- Comments on life as a Foreign Service daughter
- Pearl Harbor bombing
- Father's Japan experience at outbreak of WWII

General Comments

- Post WWII growth of the Foreign Service
- Damage of McCarthy era
 - Roy Cohn and David Schine
 - Europe's reaction
- Changes in women's career opportunities
- Husband's Japanese language and area training
- Husband's tour as Personal Secretary to Ambassador Grew
- Parents' Tokyo assignments
- Relations with Secretaries of State
- Raising three children
- Entertaining visiting Americans
- Value of representation entertaining
- Burden of diplomatic social life
- Servants and other help abroad
- Personnel bonding at hardship posts
- Value of monthly wives meetings
- Charitable works at foreign posts
- Alcoholism
- Personal library
- Medical problems at posts
- Preparation for retirement
- Praise of the Foreign Service life
- Embassies as fortresses
- Value of knowing foreign languages
- Conversation with Lord Mountbatten
- Conversation with the Duke of Windsor
- Personal foreign language capability
- Jack Service

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Role of the wife of an Assistant Secretary Association of American Foreign Service Women (AAFSW) The Wriston program (Lateral entry) Contacts with missionaries Rating wives in Efficiency Reports at post Chiefs of Mission wives need of Social Secretaries Marines as Embassy security guards
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Wellington, New Zealand <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Katherine Mansfield Embassy organization John Service Environment New Zealanders Lord Montgomery borrows their car 	1945-1947
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Washington, DC <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Activity in Foreign Service organizations 	1947-1950
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Stockholm, Sweden <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Language proficiency Social barriers Swedes object to CARE packages Nobel Prize ceremonies Birth of youngest child Fudge for the King of Sweden 	1950-1956
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Washington, DC 	1956-1959
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Seoul, Korea <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Raising children Revolutions Husband's activities as Chargé Bloodshed American soldiers President Eisenhower's visit 	1959-1961
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Hong Kong <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Rescue by Averill Harriman at Newark airport China watchers Robert Kennedy family visit Katie Loucheim Chiefs of Mission Conference (Beguio) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Wives reports on problems and responsibilities Chinese Refugees 	1961-1963

Washington, DC	1963-1965
Jakarta, Indonesia	1965-1969
Revolution
Dependents evacuation
Personal security
Strength of Indonesian women
Richard Nixon visit
Vice President Humphrey visit
Communism threat
Sukarno
Relations
“Green Go Home”
Population matters
Dinner for John D. Rockefeller
Paris, France	1969
Washington, DC	1969-1973
Nursing Assistant, local hospital
Canberra, Australia	1973-1975
Husband’s trek to South Pole
Laws preventing work by embassy wives
Environment
Trade unions and volunteerism
Washington, DC	1975-