

AMBASSADOR MARSHALL GREEN
(Japan)

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|--|-----------|
| Background | |
| Born in Holyoke, Massachusetts | |
| Father was textile manufacturer and lobbyist | |
| Annual family travel to Europe | |
| Educated at Groton and Yale ('39) | |
| Secretary to Ambassador Green | |
| Japan, Tokyo | 1939-1941 |
| Appraisal of Grew | |
| Warnings of war | |
| “Magic” | |
| Influence of Japanese Army | |
| Assistant Secretary Hornbeck | |
| Protocol duties – football | |
| Staff influences on Grew | |
| Opinion on American youth | |
| Effect of the Japanese on the war in China | |
| World War II | 1941-1945 |
| Enlistment in the Navy | |
| Japanese language school | |
| Service in ONI | |
| Entry into the Foreign Service | |
| Japan desk in the State Department | 1947-1950 |
| Trip to Japan with George Kennan | |
| Kennan v. MacArthur | |
| Ending the purges: Dean Rusk | |
| Kennan’s style | |
| Briefing John Foster Dulles | |
| Ignorance in Washington about Korea | |
| Bureau of Far Eastern Affairs | 1959-1960 |
| Characterizes of Assistant Secretary Robertson | |
| Origin of mutual security treaty with Japan | |
| State Pentagon relations | |
| Regional Planning Advisor | |
| Establishing a POLAD at CINCPAC | |
| Air-sea-ground demonstrations in East Asia | |
| The CIA role | |

Soviet planning toward Japan

Deputy Assistant Secretary 1963-1965
Relationship with Bill Bradley
Consultations: Japanese concerns

Assistant Secretary 1969-1973
The Nixon Doctrine
Henry Kissinger
Being “cut out”
Japanese reaction to change in US-China policy
Chinese concern about Japan
Nixon’s propensity to favor China over Japan
Impression of Secretary Rogers
Leakage in Japan
State-Pentagon relations
Korea and Japan
Japan and China normalize relations
Japan’s reliance on the United States
How the Japanese operate

Ambassador to Australia 1973-1975
Labor Party in power
The shipping boycott
Whitham visit to Washington
Diego Garcia base
US bases in Australia
Importance of the Coral Sea battle
Kissinger and Australia