

AMBASSADOR ROBERT E. GRIBBIN

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born in Michigan; raised in Alabama
University of South Sewanee, Tennessee; SAIS
Peace Corps, Kenya
Entered Foreign Service - 1974
Atlanta, Georgia - Head Start Program – Manager	1971
Staffing
SAIS - School for International Studies	1971-1973
Africa studies
Bangui, Central African Republic - FSO General	1974-1976
Environment
Government
Self-help program
Bokassa
Idi Amin
French
State Department - Foreign Service Institute - Economic Studies	1976
State Department - Africa Bureau - Desk Officer	1977-1979
Central Africa
Bokassa's coronation
Rwanda
Burundi
Human rights
Kigali, Rwanda - Deputy Chief of Mission	1979-1981
Tutsi-Hutu friction
Military
U.S. interests
Belgians
Religion
Dian Fossey
Gorilla protection
Peace Corps
Mombasa, Kenya - Consul	1981-1984
Peace Corps

U.S. naval visits Islam Environment Europeans
Congressional Fellow - Pearson Assignment - Congressman Steve Solarz Operations Anti-Apartheid Act Congressional staffs Foreign policy	1984-1985
State Department - East African Affairs - Deputy Director Ethiopia Falasha Sudan Uganda Somalia South Africa	1985-1988
Kampala, Uganda - Deputy Chief of Mission Holy Spirit Movement Government leaders Politics Environment Tribes Relations with neighbors Security U.S. relations Military Rwanda invasion U.S. citizens AIDS Peace Corps	1988-1991
State Department - Senior Seminar	1991-1992
USUN - Advisor for Africa, U.S. Delegation Somalia	1992
Central African Republic - Ambassador U.S. interests Peace Corps AIDS Elections French	1993-1995

Bokassa
Government
Democracy

Rwanda - Ambassador

1996-1999

Tutsi-Hutu conflict
Interahamwe
Habyarimana
Genocide
UNAMIR (UN Assistance Mission in Rwanda)
Europeans
Kigali
Chaos
U.S. policy and assistance
UNHCR (UN High Commission for Refugees)
“Genocidaires”
Environment
Security
Media
Zaire
CIA
Refugees
Military
Multinational forces
Kabila
Lusaka Accords
Burundi
Justice system
Reconciliation
Arusha Accords
President Clinton visit