

AMBASSADOR BRANDON H. GROVE, JR.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Ambassadorial Seminar

Origin 1976-1977 period

President's letter to ambassadors

Two-week program

Initial surge of political appointees after change of administrations

President Kennedy's appointments

Need for career people to have seminar

Range of ambassadorial authority

Qualities of a good ambassador

Ambassadorial posts and career development in Foreign Service

Qualities of non-career v. career ambassadorial appointees

Ambassadors as representatives of President, not Department of State

DCM function

Ambassador Motley's sessions

Inclusions of spouses of ambassadors

Fiscal responsibilities

Ethics

Protocol

Medical problems, AIDS, alcoholism

Use of consular officers

Importance of promoting US business

Relations with the media

Crisis management

Overseas Briefing Center

Instructions from Washington, how to treat them

Budget constraints on embassies

Use of staff assistants