

AMBASSADOR BRANDON H. GROVE, JR.

CONTENTS

Early Years

- Growing Up in Chicago
- Nazi Germany, Holland and Spain
- Wartime Washington
- Fordham, Bard, and Princeton
- Military Service in the US Navy
- Waiting to Begin: The USSR and Chester Bowles

The A-100 Foreign Service Orientation Course April, 1959
The Rosslyn Garage
An Offer to Resign

Vice Consul, Abidjan, Ivory Coast 1959-1961
Breaking New Ground
The First Ambassador
Soviet and Chinese Diplomats in West Africa

Staff Assistant to Under Secretaries Bowles and Ball 1961-1962
Robert Kennedy in Abidjan
Chester Bowles as Under Secretary
Lucius D. Battle as Executive Secretary
The Kennedys and Bowles
Departure of Bowles
George Ball as Under Secretary

With Robert Kennedy Around The World March, 1962

Special Assistant to Management Under Secretary Orrick 1962-1963

Special Assistant to Bowles, New Delhi, India 1963-1965
The Ambassador's Office
President Kennedy's Assassination
Merging Political and Economic Work
The Bowles Style During Nehru and Shastri
Life in Delhi

US Mission, West Berlin 1965-1969
Berlin in the Mid-1960s
Brandt and Ostpolitik
The US Mission
East Berlin

Assassinations of King and Robert Kennedy

Director, Office of Panamanian Affairs Reassignment to Washington The Bureau of Inter-American Affairs Resuming Canal Negotiations General Omar Torrijos	1969-1971
The Senior Seminar, Foreign Service Institute	1971-1972
Deputy Director, Policy Planning Staff The Nature of Policy Policy Planning The NSC Under Secretaries Committee Contingency Planning Crisis Management The World Outside	1972-1974
Deputy Chief of Mission, The German Democratic Republic, Berlin Status of Berlin Ambassador and Mrs. Cooper Establishing the Embassy Arrival of the Ambassador Relations with the Soviets During Détente Working in East Germany The Berlin Wall The Nazi Past	1974-1976
Office of The Inspector General The Inspection Process: Eastern Europe The Bureau of Oceans, and International Environmental and Scientific Affairs The US-Mexican International Boundaries and Water Commission The Philippines and an Experiment The Iberian Peninsula Value of Inspections	1976-1978
Deputy Assistant Secretary, Bureau of Inter-American Affairs Grenada and Haiti Panama Canal Treaty Implementation Central America: Somoza Guyana: The Jonestown Suicides Assessment of the Bureau of Inter-American Affairs	1978-1980
Consul General, Jerusalem	1980-1983

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>O Jerusalem</li> <li>Jerusalem and its Consulates</li> <li>Life and Work at the American Consulate</li> <li>The Camp David Accords</li> <li>A Visit to Batir</li> <li>The "Village Leagues" Proposal</li> <li>Congressional Delegations</li> <li>Visit of Former President and Mrs. Carter</li> <li>Other American Visitors</li> <li>Jerusalem's Mayor Kollek</li> <li>Places on the West Bank and Gaza</li> <li>The Habib Negotiations</li> <li>Writ of Ne Exiat</li> <li>Middle East Peace</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Turned Down by Kuwait</li> <li>    The Meaning of Agrément</li> <li>    Communications Policy</li> <li>    The CAPSTONE Seminar</li> <li>    The Operations Center and History of the Bureaus</li> </ul>	1983-1984
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Ambassador to Zaire</li> <li>    US Objectives</li> <li>    Accreditation of an Ambassador</li> <li>    Mobutu Sese Sekou</li> <li>    Mobutu with Bush and Reagan</li> <li>    The American Embassy</li> <li>    The AIDS Virus</li> <li>    Soviet and Chinese Diplomats in Africa</li> <li>    Mariana</li> <li>    "Fish Day"</li> </ul>	1984-1987
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Management Reforms</li> <li>    An $84 Million Budgetary Shortfall</li> <li>    Listening to People</li> <li>    "The Administrative Function for the 1990s" A Report</li> </ul>	1987-1988
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Director, Foreign Service Institute</li> <li>    Opportunities Without Precedent</li> <li>    Working at FSI Rosslyn</li> <li>    Managing FSI</li> <li>    Training Priorities</li> <li>    Building the National Foreign Affairs Training Center</li> <li>    Downgrading Training</li> <li>    For Training to Succeed</li> <li>    Diplomat-in-Residence at Georgetown University</li> </ul>	1988-1992

Director, Somalia Task Force 1992-1993
Somalia Background
Setting Up a Task Force
Somalia Decision
Ambassador Oakley's Role
Task Force Operations
Failure of UNOSOM II
Bureaucratic Aftermath

Policy Planning Staff 1993-1994
The Policy Environment Under Christopher
Preventive Diplomacy
Lack of Interest in Policy Planning

Concluding Thoughts

Postscript