

CHARLES W. GROVER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

La Paz, Bolivia	1966-1969
Political officer
Bolivian insurrection
President Barrientos
Coups d'etats
Che Guevara implication
Ambassador Douglas Henderson
US non-involvement in insurrection
Regis de Bary trial
Che Guevara "eliminated"
Troubles with the Pentagon
Ranger MTT (Mobile Training Team)
US military assistance
Chase after Che Guevara
Cuban Americans in Rangers
CIA involvement
Embassy knowledge of Guevara capture
Tracing Guevara in Bolivia
Ambassador Henderson and Washington
Bolivian lobby in US
Victor Andrade
CIA-DIA conflict
Bolivian reaction to Che Guevara rumors
Joint Presidency: Barrientos and General Ovando
Melgarejo
Che Guevara's diaries
Antonio Arguedes
Grover's background
Gloversville, New York
Antioch and University of Oregon
US Army in Korean War
Appointed FSO in 1956
Exchange of Person Bureau	1956-1958
Valencia, Spain	1958-1960
Vice consul
US Spain relations
US military bases

Africa Bureau	1960-1962
Public affairs
Angola task force
Assistant Secretary William's activism
Portuguese African colonies
US interests
Edwardo Molan from Mozambique
Rio de Janeiro, Brazil	1962-1965
Assignment to Mozambique canceled
Portuguese displeasure with Grover
Commercial (industry) officer
Vernon Walters – defense attaché
Monetary issues
US business climate
Tulane University	1965-1966
Latin American studies
Medellin, Colombia	1971-1973
Consul
Drug problems
Local environment
Closing of posts in Bolivia
Consular affairs
ARA	1973-1978
Personnel
Santiago, Chile	1978-1982
Deputy Chief of Mission
Letelier assassination in Washington
Pinochet government
Michael Townley
Termination of Peace Corps
AID mission closed
Political matters in Chile
Pinochet's constitutional plebiscite
Guayaquil, Ecuador	1980s
Consul General
AID program
El Niño catastrophe
Visa cases
EMILK

Equatorial Guinea

1980s