

HERBERT J. HANSELL

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born in Pittsburgh, PA; raised in Ohio
Massachusetts Institute of Technology
U.S. Navy, V12 program, WWII
Yale University
Law practice, 1949-1976
New York and Washington, DC - private practice, 1949-1951
National Science Foundation - deputy general counsel
Cleveland, Ohio - private practice, 1953-1976

State Department - Legal advisor 1976
Selection by Secretary of State Vance (and Christopher)
Mid-East Peace Treaty as priority
Relations with China issue
SALT II Treaty
Panama Canal Treaty
Cyprus
Richard Beatty
Civil rights issues
Getting briefed on issues
Law of the Sea

Legal Advisor Office 1976
Kissinger litigation
"Counselor" for international law position
Relations with INR Bureau
Relations with Vance and Christopher
Vance and Phil Habib relations
Relations with Foreign Service Officers
Soviet relations - Legal Office vote
Jackson-Vanek amendment
China and "claims asset issue"
Relations with other departments
Base agreement negotiations
Taiwan relations issue
American Institute of Taiwan
Vance and Brzezinski relations
Taiwan reaction to U.S. China recognition
Egypt-Israel Peace Treaty negotiation
Dealing with Congress
SALT II - legal issues

Litigation of minority issues

Working as legal advisor

"Tension" with State

Working with bureaus

Consular Affairs Bureau

Hal Saunders of INR

Building relations of trust

Working with the White House

Informal working group

President Carter's problems

Economic and trade issues

Environmental issue

Narcotics issues coordination

Extradition issues

Reagan versus Carter policies

ABM and "Star Wars"

Israeli negotiating ability

Israelis in Sinai

Sadat as negotiator

President Carter as mediator

Immigration issues

Patricia Derian

Human rights issues