

AMBASSADOR RAYMOND A. HARE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction
Childhood
Education and summer jobs in New York
Grinnell College experience
Robert College, Istanbul
Foreign Service exam
Consular Section, Istanbul	1928-1929
Ataturk
Language training in Paris
Beirut, Lebanon	1932-1933
Getting married
Lebanese society
Teheran, Iran	1933-1935
Reza Shah
Cairo, Egypt	1940-1944
World War II
US policy toward Middle East
London	1944-1946
Tripartite declaration
Soviet presence in Middle East
Dumbarton Oaks Conference
National War College	1946
State Department	1946-1950
Travel to Nepal
Nehru
Jinnuh
Ambassador, Jiddah, Saudi Arabia	1950-1953
US interest in Saudi Arabia
US-Saudi agreement
US visitors
Ambassador, Beirut, Lebanon	1953-1954

Palestinian Issue

Ambassador, Egypt 1956-1958
Suez Canal and evacuation
Nasser
Israel and Egypt

Deputy Under Secretary for Political Affairs 1960-1961

Ambassador, Turkey 1961-1965
Political situation
Cyprus and Johnson's letter
US Turkish relations
US visitors: Rusk and Johnson
Assistant Secretary of State for NEA

President, Middle East Institute
Fund raising
Holding classes

Conclusion
Changing role of Middle East and Foreign Service
Foreign Service as a career