

AMBASSADOR JAMES W. HARGROVE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

- Born in Shreveport, Louisiana and raised there and Houston, Texas
- Sewanee Military Academy
- Rice University
- U.S. Army - World War II - European Theater
- Private business in Shreveport
- Louisiana Republican Party
- Local school board

White House Conference on Education 1955
Federal funding for education
Sputnik

Nixon-Kennedy Election

Texas Eastern Treasurer

- International Pipelines
- European operations
- Algeria - 1960
- Embassy contacts
- Natural gas
- Environmental concerns

Kennedy-Johnson era

- Lyndon Johnson
- George Brown

Post Office - Deputy Assistant Postmaster General 1969-1972
Background of appointment
Winton Blount, Postmaster General
Converting to independent agency
Union's control
"Junk mail" value
Universal Postal Union

Private Business in Texas 1972-1976

Ambassador to Australia 1976-1977
Background of appointment
President Gerald Ford
Political changes in Australia

Sir John Kerr
Admiral Rickover
Nuclear submarine visits issue
George Bush and CIA
ANZAC Treaty
Economic relationship
USS Enterprise visit issue
Prime Minister Malcolm Fraser
National Party
Socialist Party
Gough Whitlam
Local politics
Staff
Local press
CIA
Cape Carnavon operation
Soviet relations
Australia's foreign relations
China
Nauru
Coral Sea Day
Visiting dignitaries

Post-ambassadorial Career
President of Asia Society
Private business

Appendix
Australian help to U.S.