

CONSUL GENERAL ELIZABETH J. HARPER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Women's Army Corps, World War II
Occupation of Japan
George Washington University
Entered Foreign Service 1952
Medan, Indonesia	1952-1954
Consular officer
Japan	1954-1962
Japanese language training
Consular officer
Transferred to Okinawa
Kobe-Osaka
Tokyo
Citizenship matters
Japanese visa quota
Japan Travel Bureau problem
Abba Schwartz
Visa Office	1962-1971
Quota System
Congressional demands
Chief of Field Operations
Immigration Law of 1965
Protection of US labor market
Immigration Act of 1952
Visa preferences
Immediate relatives class
Visa services during Iran crisis, 1979
President Carter and Iran crisis
Agricultural workers
"Knownothings" and immigration law
Ethnic bias in immigration
Quotas 1929 law
Kennedy proposal
US-Canadian special relationship
Act of 1970
Hong Kong Refugee program
Attorney General's responsibilities
Barbara Watson

BALPA
Field-Washington relationship
Congressman Rooney and “Little Caesars”
Deputy Director of Visa Office
Senior Seminar in 1971
Role of Congress
Waiting periods
Withdrawal of visa function from State
Montreal, Canada	1972-1976
Consul General
Quebecois problem
Olympics
Visa Office	1976-1980
Deputy Assistant Secretary
Jonestown suicides
Teheran embassy hostages
Consultant to Assistant Secretary
Immigration Laws, comments
Too many or too few immigrants
Protection of laborers and jobs
Internal inconsistencies
Possible changes
AIDS question
Annual non-immigrants issued
Illegal immigrants
Agriculture v. Labor Departments
Irish immigration	