

LAWRENCE E. HARRISON

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Early years, education and military service

Worked in the Office of the Secretary of Defense and later in OSD/International Security Affairs

Graduate studies at Harvard 1959-1960

Returned to the Department of Defense - Office of Military Assistance 1960-1962

Joined AID in the Latin America Bureau 1962

First overseas assignment with the USAID Mission in Costa Rica 1964

Transfer to USAID in the Dominican Republic 1965

Assignment as Mission Director USAID/Costa Rica 1969

Assignment in USAID Washington Latin America Bureau 1971

Director, Latin American Bureau Program Office 1972-1975

Views on United Fruit Company and development

Views on economic integration in Central America

Assignment as Director of ROCAP 1975

Assignment as Mission Director in USAID/Haiti 1977

Moved to USAID/Nicaragua under the Carter Administration
Nicaraguan revolution 1979

A sabbatical/retirement at the Harvard Center for International Affairs 1981

Work with CLUSA 1984-1988

Views on the Contras and the Sandinistas 1985

Views on AID as a development organization

Views on institution building and culture in development

Writings on development and concluding observations