

DOUGLAS G. HARTLEY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

- Born in England of American parents
- Educated at Eton and Harvard
- Life in post-war England
- Common Entrance Exam
- Life at Eton
- McCarthyism
- Entered Foreign Service - 1956

Copenhagen, Denmark - Consular Officer/Commercial Officer 1957-1958
Ambassador Val Peterson

Salzburg, Austria - Consular Officer 1958-1959
The Three Thousand Program
Refugee program
Environment
Hungarians
Social life

State Department - Foreign Service Institute (FSI) - 1959-1960
Serbo-Croatian Language Trainee
Course of study

Belgrade, Yugoslavia - Vice Consul/Political Officer 1960-1962
Environment
Non-Aligned Conference - 1961
Workload
Joint Translation Service
Ambassador George Kennan
Impressions of Yugoslavia
Tito

State Department - International Economist 1962-1964
Mutual Defense Control (EMDC)
Relations with COCOM
Export licensing
Denial Program (Cuba)
Bright Stock Denial Operation
Cuba embargo programs
Soviets

Milan, Italy - Consular/Economic Officer Consul General E.T. Crain Duties Politics Milan Trade Center Relations with embassy Economic activity Environment Vietnam War	1964-1967
Rome, Italy - Aide to Ambassador Duties King Constantine Johnson visit to Italy and Pope Ambassador Reinhardt Cold War politics Communists Ambassador's staff meetings MAAG	1967-1968
State Department - Latin America Bureau (ARA) - Personnel Officer Operations Findley Burns Vietnam Assignment problems	1968-1970
State Department - FSI - Economic Training	1970
Athens, Greece - Economic/Commercial Officer Political situation The Colonels Dusko Doder's Ceaucescu/Papadopolous article Economic situation Environment Embassy bombing Ambassador and Mrs. Tasca Tom Pappas Ambassador as pro-consul Greek-Turk rivalry CIA Onassis	1970-1972
Belgrade, Yugoslavia - Commercial Officer Ambassador Mac Toon Environment	1972-1974

Economic improvements
Ex-Im Bank involvement
Economic projects
Chamber of Economy
Debt problems
U.S. commercial interests
Krsko nuclear project
Trade fairs
Dealing with Yugoslav government
Industry
Tito
Relations with neighbors
Surveillance and security
Warsaw Pact
Soviets

London, England - Commercial Attaché 1974-1978

Functions
Family problems
North Sea oil
Economy
Irish Republican Army (IRA) bombings
Middle East
President Jimmy Carter visit
Cherry tree planting
Leeds Castle Israel-Egypt meeting
Ambassadors
Local staff
Embassy atmosphere

Salvador da Bahia, Brazil - Consul 1978-1982

Environment
Catholic Church
Relations with embassy
U.S. mistreatments
Politics
Afro culture

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil -
Deputy Principal Officer/Political Officer/Consul 1982-1984

Ambassador Tony Motley
Politics
Economy
Congressional visits

Washington, DC - U.S. Mission to OAS - Mission Coordinator 1984-1986

Working environment
Castro
Pinochet
Bill Middendorf
Jesse Helms and staff

State Department - Board of Examiners
Examination process
Aruwan exercise
Minorities

1986

Retirement
Private trading company
State - Freedom of Information (CDR)
Slovenia-American Development Company
OSCE election supervisor