

ELIZABETH (BETTY) HASELTON

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Mrs. Haselton accompanied her husband, Foreign Service Officer Norris Swift Haselton, on his assignments in the United States and abroad

Background

- Born in San Francisco, CA
- Eugene University
- University of California, Berkeley
- Smith College
- Married Norris Swift Haselton in 1929
- Shipboard romance

Work with State Department annual Book Fair

- Logistics
- Scholarship Assistance
- State Department Security Considerations

Posts of Service

Guadalajara, Mexico, 1935-1936

Manchester, England, 1937-1939

Calcutta, India, 1940

- Environment
- Sacred cows
- Darjeeling
- Climate
- Son's cholera and escape to Cape Town
- Separation from son
- Wartime travel home

New Delhi, India, 1942

Santiago, Chile, 1943-1946

- US Ambassador and wife

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, 1946-1948

National War College, 1948

Wellington, New Zealand, 1952-1954

Environment
Philip Habib

Naval War College, 1954-1957

Washington, D.C., 1957-
Husband's preference for Inspection Corps duty
Husband's "protest" resignation