

AMBASSADOR DENNIS HAYS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born into a US Navy family, raised in the US and abroad
University of Florida, Harvard University
Clerk, Congressional Sub-Committee Office
Entered the Foreign Service in 1975

Kingston, Jamaica; Consular (visa)/ Admin Officer Rosalynn Carter visit US Ambassadors Operations	1977-1979
State Department: Presidential Visits Officer, Admin. Bureau VIP visits abroad Operations White House Communications Agency Iran hostage homecoming	1979-1981
Harvard University; Kennedy School of Government Michael Dukakis President, Junior Foreign Service Officers' Association	1981-1982
President, American Foreign Service Officers' Association Operations "Exclusive Bargaining" issue Foreign Service Act of 1980 AID membership Relations with Congress Board membership The "Black Dragons" AFSA accomplishments The Foreign Service Journal Tandem assignments	1982-1985
Bujumbura, Burundi; Deputy Chief of Mission Hutus and Tutsis Jean-Baptista Bagaza AIDS Peace Corps Environment Foreign Missions Security	1985-1988

Government
Coup
US AID program
USIS programs
Georgetown, Guyana; Deputy Chief of Mission	1988-1992
Guyanese emigration
President Forbes Burnham
Environment
Elections
Economy
Border issues
Amazon River development
US interests
Jonestown Affair
Government
British
USIA
Carter Center
National War College	1992-1993
State Department; Coordinator for Cuban Affairs	1993-1995
Clinton Policy
Castro
Hard line vs soft line
Cuban agents
Congressional interest
Cuban Interests Section in Washington
Cuban refugees
Embargo
Mariel
Rafter crisis
Miami Cubans
Guantanamo
Cuban New York Mission
Talks
Cuban "Returnees" issue
Human Rights
Toronto Agreement
State Department; Director of Mexican Affairs	1995-1996
Ambassador to Surinam	1997-2000
Wijdenbosch Government
History

The Dutch
Environment
Ethnic groups
Economy
Foreign interests
Shrimp industry

Retirement

Cuban-American National Foundation

2000