

AMBASSADOR JOHN H. HOLDRIDGE

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born in Brooklyn, New York; raised at Army posts in U.S. and abroad
Dartmouth and West Point
Military duty in Korea
Entered Foreign Service - 1948
Cornell University - Chinese language training	1948-1949
Harvard University - Chinese language and area training	1949-1950
Bangkok, Thailand - information Officer	1950-1953
"Manhattan Coup"
Chinese contacts
Communist terrorists
Jim Thompson's disappearance
Local politics
U.S. presence
Hong Kong - integration officer	1950-1956
China watchers
Method of operation
Dalai Lama (Tibet)
China's press
Kuomintang
McCarthyism
Singapore - political officer	1956-1958
Independence
British control
Consul General Durbrow
Chinese demographics in Malaysia
David Marshall
Lee Kuan Yew
Department of State - China and Taiwan desk	1958-1962
Assistant Secretary Walter Robertson
Taiwan Straits crisis
U.S. support of Nationalist regime in Taiwan
Formosa Resolution
Hong Kong - political officer	1962-1966

Mainland Reporting Unit
The "Great Leap Forward" disaster
China and USSR relations
Tibet issue

Department of State - INR/RSA 1966-1969
Vietnam
China and its neighbors
China's "Cultural Revolution"

National Security Council 1969-1973
U.S. - China policy
NISSM's
Morton Halperin
NSC operations
Nixon, the NSC and State
Al Haig
Pathet Lao
Special Guerilla Unit (GRU)
CIA activities
U.S. "incursion" into Cambodia
Staff resignation over "incursion"
Vietnamization Program
Henry Kissinger
Phoenix Program
The Gnam (Nixon) Doctrine
Imelda Marcos
The Philippines
Nixon's world tour
Nixon White House distrust of the Foreign Service
Kissinger's China visit
Kissinger's Japan visit
China and Vietnam
Soviet relations
Okinawa
Kissinger and Nixon
Singapore
Lee Kuan Yew
U.S. military leadership in Vietnam
Narcotics

Beijing, China - Deputy Chief of U.S. Liaison Office 1973-1975
Organization of office
Ambassador David Bruce
Accommodations
Visas to communists issue

"Scoop" Jackson
U.S. visitors
Chinese political infighting
Environment
Relations with Chinese
George Bush
Mike Mansfield visit
The Gang of Four
Philadelphia Orchestra visit
Mayaguez episode
Soviet relations
Mao Tse-tung
Diplomatic community
Kim Il Sung

Singapore - Ambassador	1975-1978
U.S. military facilities
Lee Kuan Yew
Break from Malaysia
Political situation
Human rights issue
Narcotics
The 1990 Faye case
Pat Derian visit
David Marshall
David Rockefeller visit - 1996
CIA - Office of Emergency Management	1978-1981
Human Intelligence Collection - Chief
Duties and functions
National Intelligence Officer for China
U.S.-China relations
China and North Korea
U.S. and Japan relations
Fuel supply lines
State Department - Assistant Secretary for East Asian Affairs	1981-1983
Taiwan/China issue
Secretary of State Al Haig
F-56s for Taiwan
CCNAA and State Department
Relations with NSC
President Reagan and China
U.S.-China commercial relations
U.S. arms sales to China and Taiwan
China's U.S. Consulates

Huong Hua, China's Foreign Minister
Cancun heads of state meeting
Taiwan Relations Act
Vice President George Bush's tour of East Asia - 1982
Judge Clark
Congressional relations
U.S.-Japan relations - 1981-1982
U.S.-Japan trade relations
Mutual Defense Treaty with Japan
U.S./South Korean relations
Chun Doo Hwan
Relations with the Philippines - military facilities
Imelda Marcos
U.S.-New Zealand relations
U.S.-Thailand relations
Jakarta, Indonesia - Ambassador	1983-1986
Mort Abramowitz
President Soeharto
Lane of the Sea problem
Indonesia-China relations
Indonesia-Taiwan relations
CALTEX problem
F-16s for Indonesia
Retirement	1986
Chairman, Board of Advisors, Harvest International	