

ELIZABETH W. HOPKINS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Bio Sketch

Initial Position in Department of State; 1953

The Beginning of the Bi-national Center Operation

Early Struggles in Getting Bi-National Center Operations Underway

Criteria Used for Selecting Bi-National Center Personnel

BNC Programs Achieved Great Success in Latin America and then Expanded to Other Areas

Sources of English Language Teaching Materials for BNCs

A Regular Promotional Structure, Travel Allowances for Families, Housing Allowances and Other “Perks” Common for Regular Foreign Service Personnel Were Obtained Only piecemeal Over Several Years for BNC People

The Eventual Integration of BNC Personnel into Regular Foreign Service was Detrimental to the BNC Program Per Se

Summary of Ways in which Integration Hurt the BNC Operation