

FRANK SNOWDEN HOPKINS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background	1938-1945
Nieman Fellowship (Harvard)
World War II – Baltimore Shipyard
Department of State Organization	1945-1947
Foreign Service Auxiliary
Foreign Service vs. State Department
Evaluation of Foreign Service
Mexico City evaluation
Ambassador Messersmith
Impressions of Embassy and staff
Havana, Cuba visit
Middle East visit, Cairo embassy, etc.
European visit
London
Brussels and The Hague
Paris
Post-war reorganization
Secretary of State Burns
Evaluations of the Foreign Service
“The Embassy of the Future”
Establishing the Foreign Service Institute
National War College established 1946
Foreign Service Institute	1947-1952
Acting director
Staff
“Haxie” Smith
Language Studies
Harry Hopkins director
Planning for the future
Army War College
Career development in the Foreign Service
Stuttgart, Germany	1952-1955
Public Affairs officer
Amerika Hause
UNESCO relations	1955-1957
Martinique	1957-1960

Consular and public relations

Melbourne, Australia 1960-1963
Consular office

Public Affairs Bureau 1963-1967
Cultural Affairs – Programs and Services
“International Education in Tomorrow’s World – The Challenge”
Policy Planning Council
Vietnam War
Retirement

State Department
Secretaries of State
Presidents
Retirement