

AMBASSADOR MARIE THERESE HUHTALA

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born and raised in California
Santa Clara University
Marriage
Entered the Foreign Service in 1972
Paris, France: Consular Officer	1972-1975
Environment
Spouse
Death and Estate cases
Pregnancy
State Department: FSI; Thai language training	1975-1976
Chiang Mai, Thailand; Vice Consul	1976-1979
Withdrawal of US military bases
Refugees
Drugs
Relations with government
Environment
Operations
Student uprisings
Communists
China
US facilities
Foreign communities
Missionaries
State Department: Line Officer, Staff Secretariat	1979-1981
Teheran Embassy takeover
Operations
Pat Darien
Comments on Carter policies
Comments on Congress
Comments on Reagan policies
State Department: Desk Officer for Chad	1981-1983
Libyans
Re-opening Embassy
Factional fighting
Japanese interest

USAID Mission
State Department and Taiwan: FSI: Chinese language study	1983-1985
Hong Kong: Political Officer (China Watcher)	1985-1987
Mainland China reporting
Sources of information
China visits
Consulate Guangzhou
China economy
Investing in China
Great Leap Forward
Political repression
Christian Churches
China's future
The National War College	1987-1988
Course of study
Student body
Conflicting views on Viet Nam War
Middle East field trip
State Department: Director of East Asian Assignments	1988-1990
China assignments
Importance of language study
Considerations in assignments
Women and minorities
State Department: Office Director, Vietnam, Laos & Cambodia	1990-1992
Normalization of Relations with Vietnam
Humanitarian assistance to Vietnam
POW/MIA issue
Tri-lateral talks
Cambodian Peace process
Le Van Bang
Educational Exchange Programs
Cambodia elections
Hun Sen
Cambodian government
Non-Government Organizations (NGOs) in Cambodia
Khmer Rouge
Laos developments
Indochina refugees in US
Quebec City, Canada: Consul General	1992-1995
Secession Referendum

Parti Québécois
The French
US policy re Canada breakup
Relations
Environment
Ambassador James Blanchard
Maritime Provinces
French “cooperation” (cultural) activities
French language laws
Catholic Church
Immigration policies
Trade Agreements
Security
Master’s degree

Senior Seminar 1995-1996
Student body
Course of study

State Department: Burma, Cambodia, Laos, Thailand & Vietnam 1996-1998
Affairs

Human Rights, Burma
Cohen-Feinstein Amendment
Sanctions on Burma
Methamphetamine (Meth) production
Thailand government
Congressional restrictions
Thai economy
US military sales
Currency issues
George Soros
International Monetary Fund (IMF)
US –Thailand relations
Cambodia revolution
Evacuation
Friends of Cambodia
Hun Sen
Vietnam
Japanese
US Congressional interest
International Republican Institute
US-Laos relations
Vietnamese refugees
Orderly Departure Program
Ho Chi Minh Consulate opened
US-Vietnam relations

Ambassador Peter Peterson
POW/MIAs
Agent Orange
Vietnam economy
Vietnam's US diplomatic representation

Bangkok, Thailand: Deputy Chief of Mission 1998-2001
Economy
Human Rights
US Embassy as Regional Center
HIV and Bangkok Protocol
Operations
Interagency Costs and Support Services (ICASS)
Annual Economic Conference
Ambassador Richard Hecklinger
Thai relations with area neighbors
Semi-voluntary prostitution
Trafficking in Persons Act
Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC)
Prime Minister Thaksin Shinawatra
Currency
Corruption
US economic interests
Royal Family complications

Ambassador to Malaysia 2001-2004
Confirmation process
Relations
US Embassy
Terrorism as global issue
Prime Minister Mahathir
Human Rights
Islam
Afghanistan War
US economic interests
Government
Malaysian Chinese
Religious intermarriage
Anti-Americanism
Indians
Iraq War
Explaining US-Iraq policy
Security
Wi-fi
Malaysian relations with neighbors
Education

Students to US
China's "charm offensive"
Mahatir's anti-Jewish tirade
Prime Minister Abdullah Badawi
Environment
Centrifuge for nuclear reactor scandal
Export Controls
International child abduction
Death of son

State Department: Deputy Assistant Secretary, East Asia and Pacific Affairs 2004-2005
Asian Tsunami-US assistance
Indonesian Peace Agreement
Area developments

Retirement 2005