

EDWARD C. INGRAHAM

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Born in New York State
Dartmouth College
U.S. Army, World War II
World political climate
Bolivia	1948-1950
Consulate, Cochabamba
La Paz, Political Officer
Local environment
Tin mines
Anti-American terrorism incidents
Hong Kong	1950-1951
Chinese claiming citizenship
Korean War influence
Perth, Australia	1951-1954
One man post
Local color
Welcome to Americans
Madras, India	1954-1956
Political Reporting
Local environment
Political environment
Karala and communists
Training	1956-1958
Indonesian language training
Cornell University area studies
Jakarta, Indonesia	1958-1960
Short period in Medan
President Sukarno
Sukarno and communists
The army
Economic conditions under Sukarno
Ambassador Howard Jones
Relations with Sukarno

Washington attitude towards Sukarno
Medan area
1958 rebellion in retrospect
Allen Pope incident
Indonesian Desk	1960-1965
Australian affairs
Growth of communism in Indonesia
Indonesian claim to West Irian
Dutch interests
Ellsworth Bunker mediation
U.N. plebiscite of West Irian
Malaysia nation prospect (British)
Turmoil in Indonesia
Averell Harriman, Assistant Secretary for East Asia
Congressional Interest
Ambassador Green and Sukarno
National War College	1965-1966
Rangoon, Burma	1966-1969
Political Counselor
Historical background
Military Chief, Ne Win
Local environment
Deprivation of Burmese
Ambassador Byroade
INR, East Asia	1969-1971
Vietnam dominates
Islamabad, Pakistan	1971-1974
Two separate Pakistans
India supports East (Bengalis)
Washington views of Pakistan
General Yahya Khan
US interests in CENTO/SEATO
Ambassador Joseph Farland
DCM Sidney Sober runs embassy
India-Pakistan War
Zulfikar Ali Bhutto appears (1971)
Bangladesh becomes independent
EA, Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore	1974-1977
Country Director
East Timor dominates

Portuguese departure
Congressional interest

Singapore	1977-1979
Lee Kwan Yew
Local environment
Ambassador Richard Kneip
Diplomat in Residence, Lake Forest College	1979-1980
Retirement	1980