

RAYMOND ANDREW IOANES

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Unusual Times and Unusual People

- Secretaries Freeman and Butz
- Meeting with Hoover and Ike
- A plane ride with Vice President Johnson

Early Years

- Why I didn't become a famous baseball pitcher

With Military Government in Germany

- Seed potatoes from Poland
- The Berlin airlift
- A touchy mission to London
- Germans won't eat horsemeat
- The Marshall Plan
- An award not cherished

Back in Washington- Moving Surplus Foods Abroad

- FAO Committee on Surplus Disposal
- US food helps Japan start school lunch program
- Wheat to Spain to help build US airbases
- Food to CARE and other voluntary groups
- Military Government a rich source for FAS recruiting

Helping Launch the New Foreign Agricultural Service

- With help from Ike, FAS regains control of attaches
- Gwyn Garnett and the origin of Public Law 480
- The new FAS: What was it like?
- A tribute to Pat O'Leary
- A good mix of old and new personnel
- Farm Bureau decides not to participate in cooperator program

Sales Under PL 480

- First PL 480 agreement with Turkey
- Japan an ideal early participant
- Multi-year agreement crafted with India
- LBJ, PL 480 and Mrs. Ghandi
- Global usual marketings added to PL 480
- Did PL 480 harm Indian agriculture? No!
- Policy change- production for use instead of storage

CCC Credit and Other Tools to Push Exports

Palmby leads battle to ease export sales to Soviets
Ex-Im Bank finances sale of cattle to Mexico
Title IV PL 480 wheat sale to Lebanon rescued
Kennedy, Adenauer and the Chicken War
West coast dock strike and wheat to Japan

A Unique Partnership with Non-Profit Farm Groups

US beef to Japan- from small to huge
Strawberries and asparagus by air to Germany
How US hogs linked Yamanashi Province and Iowa
LBJ and Bill Rodman- breeding stock to Mexico
Queen of Thailand dressed in US Cotton
“The creature we helped create”
Commerce not as lucky as we were
The Perlman Report

Hurdles in Sale to Soviets and China

First grain sales to Soviets
Soviet Minister Maskevitch’s visit in 1971
Who offered a flat wheat price to the Soviets?
Kissinger, Butz and opening the China market
Ehrlichman- “Sell CCC wheat.”
Read Dunn starts the multinational cotton promotion program

European Community Becomes Center of Attention

A tribute to Esky
A 50 million ton grain trade loss
French grain exports increase 28 million tons
US fights back with Export Enhancement Program
IS the EC’s variable levy legal under GATT?

GATT Negotiations- A Long Slow Road

The 24/6 and Dillon Rounds
State Department- Let’s wait to negotiate until the EEC has reached a larger measure of agreement regarding their CAP
The Kennedy Round
Uruguay Round brings some hopeful developments
Is talk of free trade agreement between US and EC premature?

Our Many Disagreements with State- Why?

“Good guys/ bad guys” or agencies with different missions?
A separate trade office created
The Crunch

Strange Proposals

Admiral Doenitz, German Minister of Agriculture

Christopher Soames, British minister of Agriculture and Churchill's son-in-law

Other Colleagues, Plus Che Guevera and Phil Habib

Final Views