

AMBASSADOR MARILYN P. JOHNSON

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

- Early Years in Massachusetts
- Woodward School for Girls
- Radcliffe

United States Navy

- Midshipman School at Smith College
- Communications Security
- Counselor at Philadelphia Naval Hospital

Further Schooling

- University of Geneva
- Sorbonne
- Middlebury

Professional Life

- High School French Teacher
- Fulbright Teacher Exchange, Orleans, France

West Africa; Conakry, Douala, Bamako

- Smith-Mundt Grantee
- English Language Services
- USIA appointment

Tunis; Cultural Affairs Officer

- Anti-American Demonstrations
- Personal Position on Viet Nam War
- Foreign Service Inspector

Niger; Public Affairs Officer

- President Diori's Teacher
- Information Center Services

Travels in Africa

Senior Seminar

Soviet Union; Cultural Affairs Officer

- Russian Language Training
- Many American Visitors

- Police Controls
- Limitations on Contacts with Locals
- Exchange Program
- Difficult Negotiations
- Limitations in Political Negotiations
- Effect of Microwaves on Health
- Unhappy Post

Reminiscences

Togo as Ambassador

- Surprise Notification
- Preparations
  - Selection of DCM
  - Senate Hearings
  - Briefings
  - Swearing-in Ceremony
- First Days
  - Presentation of Credentials
  - Relations with President

Staff

- Relations with DCM
- Country Team Meetings
- Relations with PAO
- Leader Grants

Operations

- Typical Day
- Grumman Bribery Case
- Refinery
- Anti-government Plots
- Chadienne Revolution
- Development Projects
- Local Politics

Relations

- Western Diplomatic Colleagues
- Iron Curtain Ambassadors
- Chinese Ambassador
- Minister of Commerce and Industry
- American Businessmen
- Visitors

Official Entertainment

Fourth of July Reception
Dinners at Residence

Facilities

Embassy School
Commissary

Agencies

USIS
Peace Corps

Miscellaneous Activities and Comments

Travels Within Country
U.S. Naval Exercise
Educational Exchanges
Selection of DCMs
Integrated Mission

Pakistan; Public Affairs Officer

Three Cultural Centers
Living Conditions
Mountain Climbing
Ruins at Mohenjo-Daro

Washington; USIS Inspector

Retirement

Comments on Achievements

Views on Women in the Foreign Service

No Discrimination
Interest in Women's Movement
Advantage to Being a Woman
Pres. Carter's Interest in Women
Opportunities for Women