

AMBASSADOR JAMES R. JONES

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

- Born and raised in Muskogee, Oklahoma
- Life in Muskogee
- University of Oklahoma; Georgetown University Law School
- Journalism
- U.S. Army reserves
- Congressional assistant
- Congressman Edmondson
- Presidential campaign - 1964

The White House - Deputy Appointment Secretary 1965-1969

- President Lyndon Johnson
- Voting Rights Act
- Everett Dirksen
- Social programs
- President Johnson's work schedule
- Hubert Humphrey
- Vietnam
- Dean Rusk
- Johnson and foreign leaders
- Dissenters
- Press relations
- Chicago democratic convention
- President-elect Nixon

Congressional Campaign 1970

Private Sector Experience 1970-1972

- Law practice
- Management advisory services

Congressional Campaign 1972

- Oklahoma political structure

Congressman from Oklahoma 1973-1987

- War Powers Act
- Seniority system
- Democratic division
- Nixon
- Military issues
- Vietnam

Today Show appearance
Watergate
Iran-Contra Affair
Legislation
Carter election
Committee chairmanship
Partisanship
Taxes
Japan

Senatorial Campaign	1986
American Stock Exchange - President Functions “Products” Customers Specialists Security Exchange Commission Insider trading	1989-1993
Mexico - Ambassador NAFTA Drugs Environment Visas Elections Judicial system Cartels DEA Economic problems Presidents Chiapas	1993-1997
Private Sector – Warnaco	1997