

AMBASSADOR WILLIAM B. JONES

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background
Education in post-World War II in England
Bureau of Education and Cultural Affairs	1964-1966
African Programs
Office of Program Planning and Analysis	1966-1969
U.S. policy toward Africa
Bureau of Education and Cultural Affairs	1969-1973
Responsibilities as Deputy Assistant Secretary
John Rooney hostility towards programs
Cultural and Educational exchange with Eastern bloc
UNESCO	1973-1977
Rank of Ambassador
Role of UNESCO
Workings of UNESCO
Arab-Israel disputes
Boycotting racism resolution
Director General M-Bow
Stan Warvraig's mysterious death
Haiti	1977-1980
Political and economic situation
Popular support for Duvalier regime
Human Rights Issues
Haitian boat people
Consular activities
Cuban threat
Conclusion
Subsequent work
Panama's General Noriega
Foreign Service as a career	