

HAROLD G. JOSIF

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Background

Born in Burma of missionary parents
Raised in Burma and Ohio
University of Redlands, California; University of Chicago; SAIS
Library of Congress
U.S. Army and Army Air Corps, WWII
Morocco
Entered Foreign Service - 1948

Karachi, Pakistan - General Officer 1948-1949

Howard Fyfe
Environment
Newly independent Pakistan
Economy
Pakistan-India relations
Reporting
U.S.-Pakistan relations
British role and influence
Mohammad Jinnah
Divided Pakistan
Kashmir issue
Delhi-Karachi embassy relations
Pakistan Institute of International Affairs

Oporto, Portugal - Political Officer 1949-1950

Environment
U.S. interests
Emigrants to U.S.

University of Pennsylvania - Language and Area Studies 1950-1951

Madras, India - Political Officer 1951-1953

History of post
Davidian language speakers
Elections
Political divisions
Religion
Ambassador Chester Bowles
Communists
McCarthyism
“Witch hunting”

Vindication and clearance
State Department - India Desk	1954-1957
Krishna Menon
Nehru
U.S. aid to India
Ambassador John Sherman Cooper
Wristonization
India-Pakistan relations
U.S. "balanced" policy
Tabriz, Iran - Consul	1957-1959
Environment
Population
Justice William O. Douglas
Senator Ellender
History of
Howard Baskerville
Inspection
Kurds
USAID
U.S. military presence
The Shah
U.S. military equipment
Bazaaris
Khomeini's rise
Azerbaijan
Gordon Paddock
Colombo, Ceylon - Political Officer	1959-1962
Ambassador Gluck
Environment
British influence
Bandaranaikes (Mr. and Mrs.)
Tamil-Sinhalese conflict
Leftist parties
Attempted coups
Ambassador Frances Willis
U.S. interests
AID
Peace Corps
USIS
Relations with India
Air War College	1962-1963
Thesis

State Department - South Asian Affairs	1963-1964
Relations with White House
Phillips Talbot
Views on Pakistan
India's importance
U.S. military aid
President Johnson's Pakistan visit
Ball mission to Pakistan
Carol Laise
Johnson's camel driver
Pakistan membership in CENTO and SEATO
Afghanistan
Soviet projects in Afghanistan
U.S. Afghan projects
Helmand Valley project
National War College - Faculty Member	1964-1966
Duties
Yale University - Sensitivity Training	1966
Chris Argyris
Mogadishu, Somalia - Deputy Chief of Mission	1966-1969
Government
Ethnic unity
Tribalism
U.S. interests
Vice President Humphrey visit
USIS
AID agricultural research station
U.S. moon landing
Arab-Israeli 1967 war
Siad Barre coupe
Ethiopia importance
Soviets versus Chinese
Personal views of Somalia's future
Tripoli, Libya - Deputy Chief of Mission	1969-1973
Wheelus Air Base
Qadhafi takeover
Negotiations with Libyans
Anti-U.S. riots and demonstrations
Cultivating Qadhafi
Nationalization
U.S. oil companies

OPEC price rises
Gulf of Sidra issue
C-130 cargo planes issue
Exporting terrorism
Analyzing Qadhafi
Libyan students in U.S.
U.S. presence reductions
Ambassador Joseph Palmer
Arabic in passports issue
Libyan Airlines plane shot down
Foreign Minister Mansour Kikyha
Security

Retirement

1970